Top End

Darwin is located on the shores of the Timor Sea and its fishing is unmatched by any other major city in the world. It is home to approximately 105,000 people with its main city located right on the shores.

The Northern Territory is renowned for its fantastic Barramundi Fishing and the barra itself is internationally recognised as one of the world's greatest sport fish. The beautiful inland billabongs, big tidal rivers, mangrove-lined estuaries and pristine coastal waters are home to some of the hottest tropical sportsfishing action in the world for a massive variety of fish species.
