Mangaia Island is potentially the oldest island in the South Pacific dating back 19 million years. It is an island that holds strongly to traditional ways of life and the fishing is a prime example. This is a place where if the weather is right, no one works... They go fishing! Carrying bamboo rods that are at least 12ft long on scooters down to the reef and if they catch a big fish there is no reel to wind it in, you just walk backwards! This is a real experience for any fisherman and the reef permits some great opportunities for both fly and lure fishing also. This is an island that hardly ever sees tourists and when it does, the whole island knows you are in town!

Package Includes: Return international airfares with Pacific Blue, return domestic airfares with Air Rarotonga, 2 night's accommodation at Tiare Village in Rarotonga, 5 nights accommodation at Ara Moana Bungalows in Mangaia including 3 meals per day, local fishing guide for 4 days, transfers and all pre-payable departure taxes.

If there ever was a place to get away from everything and completely relax, this is it!
